Pay no attention to any stories you may hear about any of our candidates. There are a few little pothouse politicians around Eaton, who, for a few dollars, can be hired to peddle over the county almost any kind of roorbacks against Democratie candidates, in order to induce honest and unsuspecting men to vote against them. It has been done in the past and may be done again. The Seitz Law ought to have been made to grapple such fellows and put them to work for the State. A proposition was made to the Republican Central Committee here to hold a joint meeting between Mr. Myers and Hon. Thos. Brown, of Indiana, who spoke here the same evening, but they refused to accept it upon any terms. They were afraid to risk their party hearing the issues face on equal grounds.
